RESIDENTS NEEDED TO SERVE ON RURAL ZONING COMMISSION

The Board of County Commissioners is currently seeking Butler County residents to serve on the County Rural Zoning Commission. The appointment is for a voluntary, five-year term. Interested candidates must reside in the unincorporated portion of Butler County and must be able to attend meetings (scheduled on an as-needed basis) on Monday evenings in Hamilton.

County residents who are looking for an opportunity to serve their community as part of the Rural Zoning Commission should send a letter of interest, including a brief biography or resume, to Zeb Acuff, Planning Administrator, 130 High Street, Hamilton, OH 45011. Questions should be directed to the Butler County Department of Development at (513) 887-3411.

The role of the Butler County Rural Zoning Commission is to promote the orderly and efficient layout and the appropriate use of land to maintain the health, safety, and general well-being of the residents of Butler County, Ohio. The Rural Zoning Commission's responsibilities include the review and approval of requests to change the zoning classification of a piece of property (zoning map amendment) or to change the text of the Rural Zoning Resolution (zoning text amendment).

The five-member Rural Zoning Commission holds its meetings on an as-needed basis, typically on Monday evenings at 7:00 PM at the Butler County Government Services Center, 315 High Street in Hamilton. All meetings are open to the public. More information on the Rural Zoning Commission may be found at <http://development.butlercountyohio.org/>
